

Tenth and Eleventh Grade Students Interested in Math? Attend . . .

"A Taste Of YSP"

Saturday, December 8, 2001

from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm

At the SERC building, Busch Campus, Rutgers University, Piscataway, NJ

If you are interested in mathematics and like to solve challenging and puzzling mathematical problems, join us for a day of exciting activities in discrete mathematics. Learn about the Rutgers Young Scholars Program in Discrete Mathematics - a summer residential program July 8 - August 2, 2002.

This full-day program (including lunch) is free, funded by a grant from the AT&T Foundation, which also supports our summer Young Scholars Program (YSP).

Visit our website...

<http://dimacs.rutgers.edu/ysp/>

"A Taste of YSP" is part of the Fourth Annual K-12 Mega-Conference in Discrete Mathematics

To attend, please return the registration form below. We will send directions and call to confirm your participation. If you have any questions please contact Debby Toti at 732-445-4065.

Registration Form:

www

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ School: _____

Email: _____ Grade Level: _____

Mail To:

"A Taste Of YSP"

Rutgers Young Scholars Program
P.O. Box 10867
New Brunswick, NJ 08906